DAILY RACING FORM

CALIFORNIANS FOR CHICAGO.

SAN FRANCISCO, CAL., May 7.—Sam Hildreth with his entire string and also the Sinks leave for Chicago tomorrow. They have a formidable stable. The two Sinks leave at the same time. Louis Ezell ships to Chicago tomorrow and Frank Philips and D. A. Honig to St. Louis.

W. D. Randall has had phenomenal success with Marcus Daly's cast offs. Ostler Joe is the best average horse. He leaves for Montana Tuesday.

Eddie Jones was indefinitely suspended by Judge Murphy for his ride on Zamar II today. He will probably be ruled off altogether.

FLOTOW IN AND OUT OF COURT.

LEXINGTON, Ky., May 7.—The Second National bank attached the horse Flotow last night on a protested note of W. E. Fields, who was supposed to own part of the animal. The attachment was dissolved to-day by a local justice and the animal returned to the race track. The report that C. J. Kelly had purchased him is incorrect.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

A shrewd party known to be connected with a ringing band that was around New Orleans all winter waiting to turn a trick, has been watched closely at Newport. Yesterday was the day supposed by the knowing ones for the ringer to be cut loose. The track officials, however, had been properly notified by foreign pool rooms and the game was not played or if played did not go through.

Ex-Jockey "Bob" Soden died Thursday night at the Mercy Hospital.
